

Sometimes Alaskan Klee Kai can be overly shy or cautious unless they learn at a young age how to get along well with other dogs, people, and new situations. Obedience classes are one way for them to learn manners. They are fun and are a great way for us to learn how to teach our dogs to be polite members of society.

